

Experience IDUG!

Join the International DB2 Users Group (IDUG) in Denver, Colorado, May 11—15 for IDUG 2009—North America, the premier DB2 education and training event serving the United States and Canada.

IDUG 2009—North America offers four full days of in-depth DB2 education and training. Experience more than 130 hours of technical sessions selected by fellow DB2 users like yourself to provide you the most comprehensive educational experience!

This year's conference will feature focused, in-depth technical education on topics that pertain to your job including DB2 for LUW; DB2 for z/OS; Java; Websphere; and XML. Take advantage of tracks for all DB2 professionals including DBAs, application developers, system programmers, and managers.

The conference program is now available to view online to give you a preview of all of the excellent content available at this year's event. To be notified of other conferences updates as they are announced, please fill out the form below.
